NARRATIVE:

During the early morning hours of January 12, 2012, two search warrants were executed simultaneously in Burlington on Archibald Street near St. Louis Street and in Winooski on Main Street near Stevens Street by the Burlington Police Department along with assistance from the Winooski Police Department as the culmination of a 7 week drug investigation into the distribution of cocaine.

The investigation resulted in the arrest of Elliot Glover, of Burlington, and Jeffrey Brown of Brooklyn NY. Glover was charged with 4 counts of Distribution of Cocaine, Conspiracy to Distribute Cocaine, and Possession of Cocaine. Glover is scheduled for arraignment later today (after 1 pm). Brown was charged with Conspiracy to distribute Cocaine and was released on a citation to appear at a later time.

Of particular note, Glover has standing pre-trial conditions of release stemming from a March, 2011 arrest where he was charged by the Burlington Police Department with Sale of Cocaine, 2 counts. This means he has been in the community since that arrest and the case remains unresolved in Court.

The criminal enterprise is alleged to have taken place in various locations throughout the Cities of Burlington and Winooski.
